President's Message

As I draft greetings for the 2020 Saskatchewan Music Festival season, my thoughts go to all of the preparations for festivals that are happening simultaneously, and it makes me smile. Students are looking after the details and the big pictures of their performances, and our many volunteers who make up the local festival committees are busy! Parents, grandparents, teachers and audience members are marking the festival dates on their 2020 calendars. We are all anticipating that special time of year when the adjudicators roll into town and our classical music communities come to life. SMFA Festival communities are vibrant in every corner of our vast province. This also makes me smile. Once a year we meet at music festival to see old festival friends. Every year festival veterans welcome newcomers to their special music community. A bit of catching up happens while the adjudicators write, then there is that moment of silence while the performer alone hears the music that they are about to share. The moment after the performance, before the applause begins, is when we all realize the reward of our efforts.

So let's celebrate what we've built. Let's continue to congratulate long time participants, volunteers and communities and to show the ropes to the many new members of our music festival community. Please thank our many donors for their patronage and recognize the support from SaskCulture through the Lotteries Trust Fund. They must know that their support of our vision of a classical music community is sincerely appreciated.

On behalf of the SMFA Provincial Board, a huge thanks to our Saskatchewan communities that host our classical music competitions. Thank you for building music communities where our young musicians can grow, and we can all benefit.

Vocal/Musical Theatre/Speech Arts Adjudicator - Melissa Wood

Originally from Manitoba, mezzo-soprano Melissa Wood has called Saskatchewan home for the past eighteen years. A graduate of Briercrest College, Melissa received her B.A. in Music Performance: Voice under the tutelage of Dr. Ron de Jager. Since graduating, Melissa's passion has been to teach and perform. She has starred in numerous productions encompassing musical theatre to opera. Some of her more recent performances include, Ruth in Pirates of Penzance, the Duchess in The Gondoliers, Miss Todd in Old Maid and the Thief, and Golde in Fiddler on the Roof, The Mother Abbess in Sound of Music and Marilla in Anne of Green Gables.

In 2013 Melissa had the privilege of studying under acclaimed mezzo-soprano Paula Rockwell in Wolfville, Nova Scotia. While studying in Nova Scotia, she was featured as a guest soloist at Wolfville Baptist Church's Lenten Concert Series.

Melissa has taught at Briercrest College in Caronport, SK for the past fourteen years. She is currently completing her Master of Music degree at the University of Regina studying under Dr. Helen Pridmore. Her final Graduate recital features the music of Canadian composers such as Beckwith, Somers, Ford, Greer, Archer and Forsyth. She is the proud mother of three young children, Isabel, Hannah and Felix, who enjoy music just as much as she does.
